

Tyrone Fleadh 2008

Lecture Series:

Place and Time: History and Literature in Tyrone

As part of the special events associated with the Fleadh, Queen's University's Open Learning Programme will be offering a series of special workshops focusing on the history and literature of the county.

The workshops will be led by Cathal McManus and Tess Maginness, who are Teaching Fellows in Queen's School of Education, Open Learning Programme. Both are natives of Tyrone.

History Topics include:

- The Battle of Benburb,
- The Plantation,
- The Earl of Charlemont and the Volunteers,
- The Great Famine and its stories of emigration.

Literary Writers include:

- William Carleton,
- Flann O'Brien,
- John Montague,
- Polly Devlin,
- WF Marshall and
- Paul Muldoon.

Venue: Methodist Hall, Moy.

Dates: June 17th - June 21st

Times: 10.30am - 12.30pm.

Price: £30 or £20 concession rate (available to people in receipt of State benefits, including State pension).

For more information contact Cathal McManus:

Tel: 028 9097 5914

Email: c.p.mcmanus@qub.ac.uk