

ACROSS THE NARROW SEA: Plantations in Ulster

Monaghan Town November 7 & 8, 2008
A national conference at the Four Seasons Hotel

Supported by Monaghan County
Council

Monaghan
County Heritage
Plan

Friday, November 7

- 8.00pm Introductory remarks by Aidan Walsh, Trustee ULHT and conference organiser
Welcome and opening remarks by Lord O'Neill, Chairman, Ulster Local HistoryTrust (ULHT)
Welcome by Monaghan County Council Heritage Officer, Shirley Clerkin
- 8.15 Professor Patrick Duffy, Department of Geography, NUI Maynooth
Colonial consequences in seventeenth-century south Ulster - within fowre years next, plant and estate twelve families of British men and women
- 9.15 Discussion chaired by Lord O'Neill, Chairman, ULHT
- 9.45 Entertainment introduced by John Cunningham, Trustee, ULHT
Gaelic & Irish, Scottish & English; a mix of music, poetry & song. The Ballyshannon Singers directed and accompanied by Angela Currid on harpsichord. Harp soloist Ellen Cunningham, Carrickmacross and Pipe Major Alistair Virtue, Killen Pipe Band, Co. Tyrone & featuring King Henry V111 - the Elvis of the 16th Century!

Saturday, November 8

- 10am Registration, tea / coffee. Bookstall opens until conference end
- 10.30 Professor Raymond Gillespie, Department of Modern History, NUI Maynooth
The native Irish and the plantation of Ulster
- 11.15 Discussion chaired by John Dooher, Trustee ULHT & Chair of Federation for Ulster Local Studies
- 11.30 John Cunningham author and historian, Beleek, County Fermanagh
From the Broads to the Lakelands; English settlers in Fermanagh
- 11.45 Dr. William Roulston, Research Director, Ulster Historical Foundation, Belfast
The archaeology of a plantation manor, Dunnalong, County Tyrone
- 12noon Discussion chaired by Evelyn Cardwell, Trustee ULHT
- 12.15 Lunch and bookstall (Lunch is not included in your conference fee. The hotel offers a self-service carvery lunch. Individual courses, soups, sandwiches and wraps are also available)
- 2pm Dr. Paddy Fitzgerald, Centre for Migration Studies, Omagh
The chronology of migration in early modern Ireland
- 2.15 Siobhan McDermott, Lady Gregory Fellow, NUI Galway
Sr. Thomas Ridgway knight, thr'er at warres, hath erected a fforte or bawne at Lurgan-glaslough..and meanes to buyld a castle

Saturday, November 7 (CONTD)

- 2.30 Discussion chaired by Graham Mawhinney, Trustee, ULHT
- 2.45 Professor James Stevens Curl, Emeritus Professor of Architecture at Queen's University, Belfast
A reluctant coloniser: The City of London and the Londonderry Plantation
- 3.30 Discussion chaired by Doreen Corcoran, Trustee, ULHT
- 3.45 Tea / Coffee and bookstall
- 4pm Professor Mary O'Dowd, Professor of Gender History, Queen's University, Belfast
Women and the colonial experience in Ireland, c.1560-1660
- 4.45 Plenary discussion chaired by Jack Johnston, Trustee, ULHT
- 5.30 Closing remarks by Lord O'Neill
- 5.35 Reception by Scotch-Irish Trust of Ulster
Launch of book "Migration in Irish History, 1607-2007" by Dr. Paddy Fitzgerald and Dr. Brian Lambkin

Throughout the conference, Monaghan County Museum will be displaying part of their successful 'Maps & Mapping' exhibition at the conference venue

- Conference Fee; €25.00 or £20.00 sterling includes tea, coffee, entertainment and reception.
- Booking – please complete and return a Booking Form
- Cheques only please as we cannot accept cash
- Numbers attending will be limited so we advise early booking
- Accommodation at the Four Seasons Hotel is available to conference-goers at €65 per person sharing twin rooms. Contact the hotel directly +353-(0)47-81888, Email info@4seasonshotel.ie Web: www.4seasonshotel.ie
- Enquiries only to Aidan Walsh +353 (0) 44 9662912 or by email to aidanwalsh50@eircom.net

BOOKING
FORM

ACROSS THE NARROW SEA: Plantations in Ulster

YOUR NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

eMail _____

I enclose a cheque for

€25.00
£20.00

Would you like to receive emailed information about accommodation in Monaghan? Yes No (Please tick)

Please return your completed booking form together with your cheque to:

Grainne McAviney, The Heritage Office,
Monaghan County Council,
Market Street, MONAGHAN

