

Carryduff Historical Society

2018/2019 Meeting Programme

Hello and welcome to the Carryduff Historical Society Programme for 2018/2019. As you can see the planned activities are quite varied and hopefully you will find something that will interest you.

Monday 10th September 2018

'Megaliths and Folklore in South Ulster'

Our 2018/2019 Programme commences with a talk by Jamie Mackrell on megaliths and folklore related to South Ulster.

Monday 8th October 2018

'History of the Belfast City Hospital & its development Out of the Belfast Union Workhouse Infirmary'

Our Speaker, Norman Campbell, will give a talk on the History of the Belfast City Hospital and its development out of the Belfast Union Workhouse Infirmary.

Monday 12th November 2018

'The Home Front 1914 to 1918'

Liam Corry will give a talk on The Home Front during the period of The First World War

Monday 10th December 2018

'Cooking the Goose?' The truth about Christmas past.

Roddy Hegarty will Explore the Myth and Tradition of Christmas

Monday 14th January 2019

'Open Floor Night'

This is an opportunity for members and non-members to bring along interesting objects, family research information or old stories that they have found or know. This will be a relaxed and informal session and you can just come along and listen to some great auld yarns!

Monday 11th February 2019

'The History of the Belfast Hills'

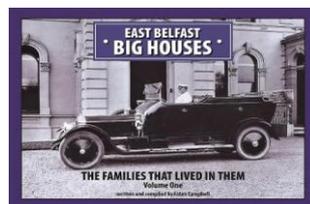

Jim Bradley, Partnership Manager of the Belfast Hills Partnership, will give a talk on the history of the Belfast Hills.

Monday 11th March 2019

'East Belfast Big Houses'

The inspirational local author Aidan Campbell will give us a talk on 'The Big Houses of East Belfast' and the families that lived in them.

Please note: Aidan's talk is in support of local charities.

Monday 8th April 2019

'The Annual General Meeting'

Prior to the AGM it is planned to have a short talk on a local subject.

The Society meets in the Committee Room in the Lough Moss Leisure Centre, Hillsborough Road, Carryduff on the second Monday of the month and the meetings begin at 8pm.

The talks are open to non-members but if you would like to join just come along and have a chat with the Membership Secretary (Treasurer).

Please Note: There is a Visitor charge of £2.00 per meeting.

FaceBook: www.facebook.com/CarryduffHistoricalSociety