

Lisburn City Library
presents

MIGRATION IN IRISH HISTORY

SATURDAY 21 FEBRUARY

MORNING PROGRAMME 11.30am - 12.30pm

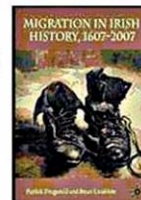

A workshop introducing the Irish Emigration Database, demonstrating how to search this on-line resource

BOOKING ADVISABLE

AFTERNOON PROGRAMME 1.30pm - 4.00pm

Presentations on Irish migration by Brian Lambkin
and Patrick Fitzgerald from the Centre for Migration Studies at the Ulster American Folk Park, Omagh.
They are joint authors of recently published book
'Migration in Irish History 1607 - 2007'

Fintan Vallely, a respected musician & writer on traditional music, will examine songs of emigration.
His most recent book is 'Tuned Out - Traditional music and identity in Northern Ireland'

BOOKING ESSENTIAL

T: 9263 3350 email: lisburncitylibrary@ni-libraries.net

ADMISSION FREE Sponsored by Rondo

Rondo
LIBRARY AND EDUCATION SUPPLIERS

SOUTH EASTERN EDUCATION AND LIBRARY BOARD
LIBRARY SERVICE